

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

VOL. XVIII.

REPLY TO RAILROADS.

THE COMMISSION STATES WHAT MAKES A GRIEVANCE.

Lines Asking For Relief When They Do Not See a Port Showing Which Would Entitle Them to a Suspension of the Operations of the Law—The Commission's Rulings.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The following reply, in substance, has been sent to the several railroad companies which have applied for relief from the short haul provision of the law without making, in the opinion of the commission, a satisfactory showing of facts, to support even a temporary order:

DEAR AXELL, REEDER, ETC.—Dear Sir: You have filed with us a petition asking us to have the Elizabethtown and Alleghany railroad, in accordance with the provisions of this act, exempted from the short haul provision of the law, without making, in the opinion of the commission, a satisfactory showing of facts, to support even a temporary order:

It does not set forth facts sufficient for the purposes of an intelligent judgment upon the situation. The law under which we are acting lays down a general rule which is just and reasonable and which must be applied in all cases, unless facts are shown which make a particular case clearly exceptional. These should be shown by the petition which is presented for relief, and the commission before it can grant relief, must satisfy itself, on investigation, that the facts are as stated, and that they render the ordinary operation of law oppressive an extent that warrants an exception being made in the petitioner's favor.

We do not think you make such a case as your petition. Its statements are very brief and general and are quite as much expressions of opinion as statements of fact. The prayer of the petition is also too broad. You ask that the operation of the law be suspended generally, and the commission does not grant a general suspension as to any road, but gives relief only as to specific specified points. For these reasons we decline to make an order in your respective years.

T. M. COOLEY, Chairman.

The express companies having raised a question as to whether they were subject to the operations of the interstate commerce law, the commission made ruling that it would hold in affirmata, but would give a hearing to any company wishing to contest the point. The Canadian Express company, in response to a letter inquiry, has notified the commission that it is carrying out the provisions of the interstate commerce law, and it follows in its general tariff from offices in the United States.

In reply to Bishop Knickerbocker, of Indianapolis, who inquired as to the right of a railroad to transport missionaries at reduced rates, the commission writes that it has no power in the premises. There is no doubt, Judge Cooley adds, of the right of railroads to grant special privileges to religious teachers, and in deciding, in good faith, what they will do, they can scarcely be said to incur the risk of penalties. Penalties are for wilful violations of the law, not for errors of judgment. Rules of similar purpose have been made to regulate weights respect to transporting persons or sets of charity.

To an inquiry in regard to the institution of suits by district attorneys, the commission writes:

In deciding upon the institution of suits by district attorneys, the commission is of the opinion that the state attorney must act upon his own knowledge.

The following emphatic, by far the most important action yet taken by the interstate commerce commission. The immediate matters selected to which to appeal opinions of the commission only affect the interests of limited classes. But the opinions themselves cover, in important respects, interpretations of the interstate commerce law and determinations respecting the extent of the powers with which the commission deems itself charged and, is provided for the more correspondence of the commission, as far as to those every branch of trade or commerce in the land.

An application in writing has been made to the commission for its answer to the following questions propounded on behalf of the order of railway conductors:

1. Are railway companies prohibited from issuing free transportation to the immediate families of their employees?

2. Are railway companies prohibited from issuing free and reduced transportation to officers of associations composed exclusively of railway employees, who are temporarily out of the railway service and exclusively employed by those associations?

3. May railway companies issue passes to employees of other railroads on application of employer, or make such application come from an officer of the company by which he is employed?

4. Do railway companies issue free or reduced transportation to which railway service their business or trade while temporarily out of employment and in search of situations?

5. May railway companies provide free transportation to officers of associations composed exclusively of railway employees upon certificates from officers of the association that they are such representatives?

6. If free transportation is granted to representatives described in question five, must all such representatives be actually in the employ of some one way, or may it include those who may be temporarily out of employment and those temporarily engaged in other employments as officers of such association?

7. If free transportation is granted for delegates described in question five, may it include members of the immediate families of delegates?

8. If free transportation or reduced rates are provided for representatives of any one association, must the same be extended to all others which are composed exclusively of railway employees?

Another application has been made to the commission on behalf of the Traders and Traveller's union, stating the system under which an additional allowance of free baggage has been heretofore carried by commercial travellers as subject to a written agreement for regular and continuous use, which the commission is requested to examine carefully and advise us if there is any reason why a railroad company desiring to do so should not enter into such an arrangement, under the stated terms, an increased allowance of free baggage.

These two petitions are presented by highly respectable organizations, and raising questions of immediate practical importance, are representatives of a large number of similar applications which have been made to the commission for the consideration of the provisions of the act to regulate commerce as applied to the various points at which those provisions touch customs of the past. They indicate the general character of all, and enable the commission to announce certain conclusions to which it has arrived respecting its jurisdiction and its power.

It is obvious from the tenor of such applications as these which reach us by every channel of impression, that this commission has power to construe, interpret and apply the law by preliminary judgment. We are continually applying for decisions in advance as to what common carriers are said to be willing to do, and the commission is requested to examine carefully those under consideration.

An expression of our opinion upon these subjects will, in time, being neither a duty imposed nor power given, but a right which we will exercise if no judicial efficacy or sanction. In fact, it would be no more useful to the public or carriers than the expense of other means to do the same thing. Two sections of the law conflict with one another, and the act to regulate commerce, under which this commission is organized, will show to the petitioners or others who have made similar applications, that no just cause exists for them to answer questions like those under consideration.

An expression of our opinion upon these subjects will, in time, being neither a duty imposed nor power given, but a right which we will exercise if no judicial efficacy or sanction.

In fact, it would be no more useful to the public or carriers than the expense of other means to do the same thing. Two sections of the law conflict with one another, and the act to regulate commerce, under which this commission is organized, will show to the petitioners or others who have made similar applications, that no just cause exists for them to answer questions like those under consideration.

A Stolen Bill Re-Established.

DOVER, Del., April 18.—It was discovered today that the bill for the suppression of policy gambling, which had passed both houses, been signed by the president of the senate and only awaited the signature of the speaker of house.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't!"

"That was a lie!" shouted O'Connor.

Lord Hartington. These charges were criminal libels of untrue, impugning the power to criminal prosecution, yet no prosecution was ventured upon. [Cheers.]

The matter was then dropped.

Subsequently Mr. Sexton, resuming debate on the Irish crimes act amendment bill, said that Major Saunderson had charged him with direct complicity in the crime. If the accusations were well founded, why did the Irish vice-regal approve his present appointment as high sheriff of Dublin? His name is a member of the executive committee of the land league.

Major Saunderson, in pointing to him (Sexton), mean in reality to embarrass Colonel King Harman, against whom the major had recently unsuccessfully competed for the new government office of parliamentary secretary for Ireland.

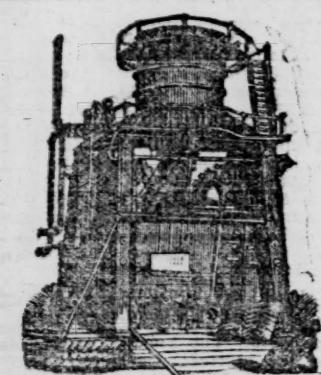

Mr. Saunderson remained silent, Mr. Gladstone put to him the direct question, whether he was prepared to render the house any assistance by the withdrawal of his offensive expressions.

The conservatives cried out, "No!" "Don't

A QUESTION ABOUT
Brown's Iron
Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times. "Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease known to man." Well, it doesn't. But it does cure every disease known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading medical man will substantiate the fact that there is no such thing as iron in any form or shape more efficacious than in medicine. This short communication from a medical practitioner is, however, a remarkable fact, and prior to the disclosure of it, I have never heard of any such claim being made. It is true that iron combination had ever been found to do any good. It is also true that iron does not injure the body, nor does it produce any other iron headache, or produce combination—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Chills, & Fevers, Wind Pains, General Debility, Pains in the Head, Neck or Limbs, Headaches and Neuralgia—for all these ailments it is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is not sure in a minute, takes all other thorough medicines. It acts slowly, but when taken in the right dose, the results then become better, the digestion improves, the bowels are active, the appetite comes back again, the skin begins to glow, healthy color comes to the cheeks, nervousness disappears, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is given to her child. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. See Concord has strong taste and crossed taste on women. TAKE NO OTHER.

ARTISTS & PAINTERS'
MATERIALS,
LUBRICATING OILS,
COLORS, VARNISHES,
BRUSHES.
WINDOW GLASS, ETC.
A. P. TRIPOD,
45 DECATUR STREET,
ATLANTA - GEORGIA

MORSE CUTTING COMPRESSOR.
Most powerful and effective in the world. Exerts pressure on bales of 5,000 pounds. Has loaded largest cargoes taken at American ports. Sixty two of them and they are compressing OVER HALF THE AMERICAN COTTON. There are more now in New Orleans than in the remaining seven-twelfths of the whole business. Several of those erected nine years ago have compressed over ONE MILLION BALEES EACH without defect or appreciable wear.

Their immense WEIGHT AND STRENGTH have rendered them the only DURABLE Compressors, and wherever erected most successful and productive, saving annually millions of dollars in freight charges.

For particulars address

S. H. STEERS & CO.,
Cotton Exchange, New Orleans.
Get this out. Feb 27 3m sun to th

D. C. BACON, Pres. M. F. AMOROS, Gen. Mgr.
ATLANTA LUMBER CO.
YARDS,
Humphries St. & E. T. V. & G. Railway.
OFFICE 48
MARIETTA ST. R. & G. Ry.
On Line U. S. & V. & G. Ry.

LONG LEAF PINE
Kiln-Dry Dressed Flooring, Ceiling
Weatherboardin', Shingles and Laths,

Bridge and Trestle Timbers,
Best in quality, lowest in price.
Write for estimates on house bills.
Sep 1st 2pm n.m.

WILLINGHAM & CO.,
DEALERS IN ROUGH AND DRESSED

LUMBER
DOORS, SASH, BLINDS, SHINGLES, LATHS, and BUILDING MATERIAL of every description,
HARDWOOD, POPLAR, SCAMOYER, etc.
Price Low. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

WILLINGHAM & CO.,
45 Elliott Street, Atlanta, Ga. Telephone 1020.
Feb 22—3pm 60 am 11pm 20pm

Pleasant Vision.

The organ of sight, which is the source of so much pleasure as well as benefit to man, is very delicate. A great many persons, not appreciating this fact, are liable to injure their eyes by their importunate construction and blemishes, seriously injure and sometimes almost destroy the eye. The eyes of a tyro are not the most perfect organs in the world, being especially adapted for the preservation and sometimes restoration of sight.

Hawks not only has the best glasses, but carefully examines the eye of each patient, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of glasses, having had an experience of thirty years in this branch of science. Every pair warranted.

Glasses in all styles fitted to those lenses without extra charge. Gold, silver, pink stone, celluloid, balsa, parrot shell, ivory, bone, spectacles and eye glass bridges to fit any nose.

Prescriptions filled and spectacles made to order

Beware of Counterfeits.

We would caution the public against buying articles of value, such as watches, traveling through the country and representing themselves as K. Hawkes, or selling the same class of goods. My spectacles are stamped on the frames "Hawkes" and none resembling him can stamp on the frame, and none are supplied to peddlars any price.

A. K. HAWKES, Optician,
Decatur St., Under Kimball House, Atlanta,
2d floor.

WEAK MEN!

whose VITALITY is failing, Drain DEAL'D AND
REPLACED, you will find it in the next page.
It may find a perfect and reliable cure.

THE FRENCH HOSPITAL REMEDIES are the best known in the world. Recommended by all French Physicians, and being rapidly adopted here. All walking losses and drugs previously obtained, are now supplied by this firm. Price low. Life Insurance and Accidents, etc. FREE. Committee of Physicians and Surgeons. Doctor J. C. H. H.
SHIVILLE AGENT, No. 174 Fulton Street, New York—dry less than sat less.

THE SUPREME COURT.
DECISIONS RENDERED MONDAY,
APRIL 18, 1887.

Hon. Logan E. Blackley, Chief Justice, and Hon. Samuel Hall and M. H. Standford, Associate Justices—Reported by J. H. Lumpkin, Reporter for the Constitution.

Coleman & Co. vs. Jenkins. Foreclosure of mortgage, from Baldwin. Promissory Notes, Negotiable Instruments, Debtor and Creditor, Payment. (Before Jenkins.) Argued by Blackley, C. J.—Decided by him in his ignorance, he was not hurt by his ignorance, it is the same as if he acted with knowledge. Thus, there was a negotiable promissory note was transferred before maturity as collateral, and was afterwards paid off in property, not to the holder, but to the payee, who collected without authority, and who, after converting the property into money, transmitted the proceeds to the holder as his own money, and the holder applied the same to the secured debt only, not applying it also to the collateral. The court knowing that he was doing what a fair dealing would have done, held a discharge of the collateral debt notwithstanding such ignorance on the part of the holder. Judgment affirmed.

Whitfield & Allen; J. H. Lumpkin, for plaintiff in error.
D. B. Sanford, for defendant.

Trice, adm'r, vs. Rose, Claim, from Baldwin. Evidence. Fraud. Burden of Proof.

Before Judge Jones.

Leake & White, in a claim case, the claimant insisted that in 1872, he had been the surety of the defendant; that in 1873, he had substituted himself as the debtor, and in consideration thereof, had purchased the land and gone into possession; and where it appeared that the defendant had remained upon the land for about six months after the sale claimed, until the claimant could prepare a place for him at his house, and then had gone to live with him; that the plaintiff's judgment was rendered in 1875; that the defendant had been in the possession for taxes as agent, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance was given to her child. The court held that the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. See Concord has strong taste and crossed taste on women. TAKE NO OTHER.

Tutt's Pills

Regulate The Bowels.

Costiveness deranges the whole system and begets diseases, such as

SICK HEADACHE,
Dyspepsia, Fevers, Kidney Diseases,
Bilious Colic, Malaria, etc.

Tutt's Pills produce regular health of body and good digestion, without which, no one can enjoy good health.

Sold Everywhere.

eat tues the top col 2dor/pn n in wky wo king 14

G. W. Adair..... Auctioneer.

Wees Residence on Capitol Avenue,

I WILL SELL UPON THE PREMISES, ON WEDNESDAY, the 26th of April, at 4 p.m., 108x22 feet on Capitol Avenue and Clarke street, the residence of the handsomest residence in the city with beautiful shaded lawns, elegant two-story residence.

PLAN OF HOUSE.

Basement—An store and servants' rooms; coal and water bins.

Floor—Four large rooms, all connected; dining-room, butter's pantry, china and glass closets, storage room and kitchen and servants' room. Fine well of water on porch.

Second floor—Five large rooms, dressing rooms, bath room, etc.

This is one of the most elegant homes in the city, with all modern conveniences, and the very best

Macadam, brick sidewalks, street cars, water, gas, etc. now all in place.

Gas, water, schools, churches, etc.

Situated on one of the highest points in the city; noted for good water, pure air and free from malaria.

Rent $100 per month to 1st October, when purchaser can take possession and collect rents from date of settlement.

Titles perfect; abstract in office; purchasers can get title papers.

Terms, one-third cash, balance one and two years, with 8 per cent interest or all cash.

0-17-19-20. G. W. ADAIR, Wall st.

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3 SHOE.

Stylish, Durable, Easy Fitting.

The best $3 Shoe in the World.

Quality $3 Shoes superior to those made by other firms.

our $2

FINEST CALF

FINESSE BESIDE KID

FINESSE BESIDE KID</p

SCRAPS OF WRITING

WHICH MAY LEAD TO THE IDENTITY OF A SUICIDE.

A Railroad Employee Finds Some Writing Near the Spot Where the Unknown Man Took His Life in East Macon—Host of All Kinds From the Central City—Personal.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Tonight E. C. Bulky, Jr., a mechanic, brought into this office some bits of paper found near the body of the unknown man who suicided in East Macon Friday night. Though fragmentary, they may lead to the discovery of his name and previous history. At the time of the forecast, no paper of any kind was noticed near the scene, but Bulky and Frank Collins afterward discovered and preserved them. They had been torn and scattered in the fire straw. From the best that could be made out they were as follows:

On a bit of pasteboard, "Social Circle," and on the other side a name which is erased and "Atlanta" following. On half a letter, "Albany, Ga., March 18, 1887.—Bona, my dear son: I write to say that I am as well as can be expected, that you—but all the others are disconnected words, the most distinct being "kill" appears on the back. The letter is torn across and also in the folds the long way, and being written in pencil is nearly obliterated and unintelligible. On another scrap of paper are the lines:

"CHORUS."
To that bear home joyous news.
My children shall again return.
And when thy old friends welcome thee
Thy loving heart will cease to yearn,
Where laughs the little silver stream
Beside thy mother's silver stream.

Here is a line in two: On the other side are six of the same sort of lines all written in a lady's hand in pencil. On a small fragment in the name "Juliette" written in a good hand in pencil. Another scrap contains six lines on one side and eight on the other of the song quoted above. On two other pieces of letter paper are rough railway lines with dots along the route for the stations, and in that same small womanish hand is written opposite each dot the names of the stations from Atlanta to Macon on the East Tennessee road with distances from the cities to the mountains.

A line is written in one corner, "Astor Filippo," with a capital "A" and a small "P" in the same hand. Near the spot where his head lay a 44-caliber cartridge shell was found by Frank Collins, while the pistol was found near by empty.

THE COST OF THE COURT.

A Bold Young Man Gets Himself Into Trouble.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Late Saturday evening a young white man named Newton took a two-horse hack and persuaded the driver to allow him to take the reins. He drove around on the corner of Cherry street where an itinerant peddler was vending his wares and making a speech all at the same time. The young man thought it would be great fun to peddle the peddler, and began jeering at him during some of his sayings, which the vendor shifted off with hitting retorts. Finally the bold young man grew angry, and said: "You go to hell!"

"Police," cried the peddler, and Stationhouse Keeper George Henry and Patrolman Jenkins responded. They went in pursuit of the negro, who turned around and tried to drive over the peddler's turnout. The two officers caught the reins, got into the hack, made the driver get the lines into his own hands and drove to the barracks.

He was locked up, but put up collateral and was released. This morning he entered the courtroom with many airs and a flourish of trumpets. He wanted to know what the charges were; he proposed to pay the bill immediately, and he was in a hurry and did not want to be detained. He was fined ten dollars for being drunk, which charge he met with a plea of guilty, deeming that he was disorderly. He grew noisy, and treated the recorder with such supreme contempt that the latter added fifteen dollars to the assessment to the amount of the ground rent to the assessment.

Finally had the impudent young man looked up again until court was over. Finally the young gentleman subsided and paid up his $25 and was released.

DEATH OF A CHILD.

Frank Mallory's Little Year-Old Baby Dead After Week's Sickness.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Today at ten o'clock the little year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mallory died, after a week of suffering. Mr. and Mrs. Mallory were formerly residents of Rome, and their many friends in that city will regret to learn of their loss.
The Long Drought Broken by a Refreshing Shower.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—This morning dawned dark and gloomy with lowering clouds rolling up from the southwest, and howling winds kicking up high jinks in the dust. About 8 o'clock the rain came down, and for awhile it looked as though there would be a regular flood. After the ground had got a good wetting the rain stopped almost suddenly as the wind rose higher and higher, and blew the clouds off and left as bright a day as ever blazed.

All day the wind has continued, and the rude blasts that came tearing down Mulberry street are laden with brick bats, straw hats, old iron and waste paper, and the way of the pedestrian is hard.

It is thought that the rain was general throughout this section, and the gardens and young crops will be vastly benefited.

The trees and houses got a good washing, and it does not look like the same old town.

DOTS AND DASHES.

Spy Specials and Short Dispatches Served in Sentences.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—There was an intense blaze in a house down near the river, but it was soon extinguished without damage.

Citizens of Fort Hawkins Hill are moving in the way of tree-planting and improvement. The hill is becoming one of the most beautiful of Macon's suburbs.

Henry Horne the real estate man, has been busily engaged today in disposing of lots on the hill, and the new buyers are mostly from the ranks of enterprising gardeners and vegetable men.

E. H. Harris is able to get a little after a painful attack of rheumatism. It is a matter of regret to Mr. Harris that the hangdog so much resembles him.

W. A. Johnson, the lightning rod man, who is in charge of about 100 rods of lightning rods, is very emphatical that he had anything to do with it or that he has even confessed anything.

M. J. A. Lambach, Bob Holley and Nelson Carter are shooting at a target yesterday, and Holley made a split, and shot Carter in the leg, making a painful wound.

Mrs. J. A. Shields returned to her home in Atlanta this morning on the fast train, after spending several days with relatives and friends in this place.

Sibley's Dividend.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Sibley factory have declared three per cent semi-annual dividend, the first since the factory was constructed, about six years ago.

Hotel Change.

COVINGTON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Mr. C. C. Hart has taken charge of the Cox hotel, and the house will hereafter be known as the Crane house.

"OH! But I Salivated Him!"

Was the actual exclamation of an honest physician, spoken of one of his patients to whom he had given calomel for the cure of filariasis and a diseased liver. And he had salivated him for certain, from which he never recovered. All these distressing consequences are avoided by the use of Dr. Piero's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," a purely vegetable remedy that will not salivate, but produces the most pleasant effect, invigorate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and piles. By druggist.

SECURE MEMBERS

Life Insurance Association, 2nd flr., Cincinnati, Ohio.

By a private letter from Lagrange, Dr. Thomas A. Chastain, of Rankin & Co., was informed of his election to the vice-presidency of the Georgia Pharmaceutical association.

THE MICKLEJOHN CASE.

Tried Before Justice Poe Today—An Interesting Affair.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—This morning Frank Micklejohn was brought before Justice Poe, but on petition of counsel the trial was moved to Justice Poe's court, and the parties at law all adjourned to the superior court room, where Mr. J. J. Cobb, teller at the Exchange bank, and Mr. Walsh, the country squire who presented the check, were examined. The evidence was pretty strong against the accused, who tried to appear indifferent, but was obviously rather nervous. Micklejohn, a young man, apparently twenty to twenty-five years old, has a smooth face and rather sharp features. He is neatly dressed, and has the air and bearing of a gentle sort of man. Patterson & Willingam appeared for the defense, and Bacon & Rutherford for the prosecution.

Mr. Abe Ellis stated that he kept no private account at the Exchange bank, but that the depositors were to the credit of the Central City company. Mr. Patterson urged his plea in his plea, and showed that technically there was a discrepancy in the warrant and the check, and pleaded a dismissal on these grounds.

Mr. Rutherford urged that it had been proven that the prisoner had violated the law with palpable intent to defraud, and made a strong speech for the prosecution.

After a patient hearing of the case Justice Poe received Micklejohn to give bond in the sum of five hundred dollars in each case, and failing to do this he was placed in jail. The superior court meets next week and he will probably get a speedy trial.

A FINE GARDEN.

Dr. Blount's Phenomenal Strawberries and Vegetables.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—This morning a CONSTITUTION reporter went around to the easy residence of Dr. Thomas H. Blount on Academy street, and had a peep at his yard and garden. The general doctor has but a limited area, but he has economically utilized every foot of ground. When he began on the plat it was a washed off clay hillside. Now it is one solid mass of living green and bloom. His strawberry patch is the wonder of town. He composted and has dusted the beds until the plants look as vividly and velvety green as yesterdays. They are just covered with luscious red berries and blossoms. Several of the plants have been cut and from sixty to eighty berries have been found on single plants. On one seventy-six were counted last week, and yesterday, on a recent count there were found to be one hundred and five well developed berries on this single plant.

SENT TO THE ASYLUM.

An Unknown Negro Woman Convicted of Insanity.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—The negro woman, Julia, taken up by Patrolman Thorpe last week, was tried before a jury in Lunacy today and convicted of insanity. Nothing could be learned of her previous history, name or residence. All that she will be told was that her name was Julia. She will be sent to the state asylum at Milledgeville.

FROSTS IN COURT.

The Case Set for a Hearing on Wednesday.MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—This morning Charles Frost was brought into Justice Freeman's court for trial. After due consideration the trial was set for Wednesday, April 20. Frost is quite deaf and blind, and was unable to speak. In a recent count there were found to be one hundred and five well developed berries on this single plant.

RUN OVER AND KILLED.

A Drunken Man Sleeps on the Track With the Usual Result.WASHINGTON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Mr. James Burke, of Taliaferro county, was killed by a train about 10 o'clock last night at Hillman's electric shaft. Mr. Burke's home is near Hillman's, bounded the middle train at that point yesterday and came up to Washington, remaining here until 5 o'clock when he returned to Hillman under the influence of whisky, with a couple of filled flasks in his pockets. The train stopped at Hillman and put him off, and proceeded on to Barnett. As it neared Hillman on its return, the conductor was startled by the bumping of the baggage car, and rung the engine down. Taking his lantern, walking back to see the cause, he found Mr. Burke, who had cut himself, and was gathered on the track and was dragged some distance by the engine.

RUN OFF THE BRIDGE.

A Frightened Horse Causes an Accident Near Harris's Mill.LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Saturday afternoon Louis Hutchins, while returning from Ben Smith's court, narrowly escaped losing his life. While passing over the bridge at Harris's mill, his horse became frightened and ran away, and the boy was thrown from the horse, and began bucking. There were no bystanders, but the boy got hold of the reins one of the hind wheels of the buggy was off the bridge, but by the time he got hold of the reins one of the hind wheels of the buggy was off the bridge, and in a second the buggy and horse were dragged over and down into the rocky creek below, a distance of twenty feet. Louis got his hand entangled in the reins and was drawn over also, falling between the horse's legs to the creek. He was hurt on the shoulder, his chin cut and his face bruised, but his injuries are not at all serious. The remains of the buggy are in the creek yet; it is all to pieces. The horse is considerably hurt; he belongs to Judge Hutchins.

A PRIZE DEBATE.

The Demosthenic Society of the State University.ATHENS, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—The Demosthenic society of the university today agreed to have a prize debate. The question to be discussed is, Resolved, That civil service reform is injurious to the democratic party. The debate will occur the second Saturday in May and will be open to all the members of the university faculty. After the debate, which will be open to all the members, a handsome medal is to be awarded to the best debater in the society who participated in the discussion.

This is the best school in this part of the country, and is doing better under the efficient management of Professor Quillian and his able corps of assistants than for many years, there having been 130 pupils enrolled the present year.

M. J. J. Scopins, whose house was burned last Thursday morning, was invalid all white, and said, though his loss was heavy, yet he would not give up, but when his neighbors and friends began to show their sympathy for him by handing him five and ten dollar bills when they would meet him, so touched his heart that he trembled as the great tears would flow down his cheeks, as he expressed his appreciation of their sympathy.

Madison Society.

MACON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Macon society has kept quite gay for the past month, and the whole city seems to be putting on a new life in society as well as in business circles. The marriage of Miss Mustin was quite a brilliant affair last Thursday night.

Wednesday night a delightful entertainment was enjoyed by the young people, at Judge Stovall's, and on Friday evening, at Foster Hall, an impromptu german was greatly enjoyed. Several young lady visitors were in attendance.

Miss Fannie Clark, a charming young lady of Edgefield, is the city.

Miss Fannie Scott, of Putnam, is visiting Mrs. W. L. High.

W. E. Shepherd a very popular society young man of Social Circle, spent a few days in the city this week.

Topics in Thoson.

THOMSON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Mrs. Burdette, the octogenarian teller, died at her home in this city yesterday. She was 86 years old.

W. A. Johnson, the lightning rod man, who is in charge of about 100 rods of lightning rods, is very emphatical that he had anything to do with it or that he has even confessed anything.

M. J. A. Lambach, Bob Holley and Nelson Carter are shooting at a target yesterday, and Holley made a split, and shot Carter in the leg, making a painful wound.

Mrs. J. A. Shields returned to her home in Atlanta this morning on the fast train, after spending several days with relatives and friends in this place.

Sibley's Dividend.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Sibley factory have declared three per cent semi-annual dividend, the first since the factory was constructed, about six years ago.

Hotel Change.

COVINGTON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—Mr. C. C. Hart has taken charge of the Cox hotel, and the house will hereafter be known as the Crane house.

"OH! But I Salivated Him!"

Was the actual exclamation of an honest physician, spoken of one of his patients to whom he had given calomel for the cure of filariasis and a diseased liver. And he had salivated him for certain, from which he never recovered. All these distressing consequences are avoided by the use of Dr. Piero's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," a purely vegetable remedy that will not salivate, but produces the most pleasant effect, invigorate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and piles. By druggist.

SECURE MEMBERS

Life Insurance Association, 2nd flr., Cincinnati, Ohio.

By a private letter from Lagrange, Dr. Thomas A. Chastain, of Rankin & Co., was informed of his election to the vice-presidency of the Georgia Pharmaceutical association.

A RIGHT SMART BREEZE.

KINGSTON VISITED BY A DISASTROUS WINDSTORM.Several Buildings Demolished and Many Broke.*Wind and Roads—Extent of Damage Done in Town & Railroad Tracks Blown Down—More Wrecks and Accidents.*KINGSTON, Ga., April 18.—[Special.]—A storm of wind accompanied by some rain passed through Kingston, about five o'clock this morning. There was a good deal of damage done. Half of the houses built some few months ago by the Western and Atlantic railroad, for the accommodation of the factory's men, were discharged this morning, and Leopard appointed to fill the vacancy. The two have been enemies for some time, and since Brooks was discharged he has been drinking heavily. Tonight he was drinking heavily. Brooks went to the gate of the factory fence, which was about twelve feet high, and called Leopard, who responded to the call and walked up to Brooks. Brooks said, "I intend to kill you," and cut Leopard through the fence.

As he did so Leopard jumped back, quickly drew his pistol and fired, the ball entering Brooks' right breast, about two inches to the right of the nipple. The shot was heard by two operatives of the mill, T. J. Ernest and a man named Hoffman, who quickly ran up to Brooks and arrested him. Brooks was quickly moved to his home near by, but died very few minutes.

The storm was accompanied by keen, vivid flashes of lightning and heavy thunder and the wind came from south west.

At eight o'clock this morning the sky is almost clear, but a heavy wind is blowing from the west at fifteen or twenty miles an hour.

Part of the tin roofing of the depot was blown behind John McElveen's store house, a distance of sixty yards, and other parts of it found a lodging place at Drew Hall's blacksmith shop, a distance of one hundred and twenty-five yards.

A Treble Blow.

The wind was吹 through the scene shortly after the shooting and arrested Leopard, who had made no attempt to escape. He was quickly carried to jail, refusing either to talk to the police officers or report in doing so he was acting under advice.

Leopard's friends claim that the shooting was in self-defense, while others say that it was a cold-blooded murder. It is evident that Leopard acted very hastily, for it would have been very easy for him to have been arrested if he had been seen.

There is a report of a shooting at the scene shortly after the shooting and arrested Leopard, who was only armed with a knife and was on the opposite side of a high fence. Leopard, however, stated immediately after the shooting that he was of the opinion that Brooks had a pistol, and if he

CAR ACCOUNTANTS.

ARRIVAL OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The Train Down the State Road and Have a Jolly Time—All Quarters at the Kimball House—The Association to Convalesce at 10 O'clock This Morning Business Ablaze.

A special train on the Western and Atlantic railroad brought to the city at six o'clock yesterday evening the members of the Car Accountants association of the United States and Canada.

There are 125 gentlemen and 25 ladies in the party, and they are all staying at the Kimball.

The special train which brought them from Chattanooga to Atlanta was tendered as a compliment by the Western and Atlantic railroad. It left Chattanooga at 12 o'clock yesterday and was drawn by the "General," which was stolen at "Big Shanty" by the rebels during the war. As the train came down the road, many stops were made at points of interest, and the car accountants were given full opportunity to see the ground over which Sherman and Johnston struggled.

This year, Mr. Willis Reagan, of the Thurman Car Company, will give the visitors a reception at the Capital City Club.

Tonight evening Governor Gordon will give a reception in honor of the accountants and the ladies who have accompanied them to Atlanta. It will be a very brilliant affair.

Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Mrs. E. C. Spalding will give the visiting ladies a reception.

Thursday afternoon will be devoted to carriage drives to the various places of interest in and near the city. A visit will be paid to the spot where McPherson fell.

Friday morning a special train of devils will bear the visitors away on an excursion to Florida. That "pilgrimage to the land of flowers" is tendered by the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad through Mr. F. J. Hoyle, the car accountant of that road. The excursion will go from here to Brunswick, and from there by boat to Fernandina, and for the subsequent proceedings upon the program may be consulted.

Arrive Saturday morning at the Florida railway station at 6 a.m. April 21st. In the afternoon a special excursion will be tendered by the Jacksonville and Atlantic railroad to the beautiful Lake Keowee, South Florida railway. Arrive at Tampa 5 p.m., where the night will be passed upon the Gulf of Mexico.

Leave Sunday morning by the South Florida railway, 2 p.m., via Kissimmee, Arrive at Sanford 2:30 p.m.

Leave Saturday evening the People's line of steamers 10 p.m. An afternoon excursion will be tendered by the St. John's river. Supper served on board. Arrive at Palatka 12 midnight, where pleasant dreams and quiet slumbers will be next night.

Leave Palatka—By the St. Augustine and Palatka railway, 10 a.m. April 25th.

Arrive at St. Augustine about 12 noon, for a walk of about two hours in this most ancient Spanish city, the oldest in America.

Leave St. Augustine—By the St. Augustine division of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railway at 4 p.m.

Arrive in Jacksonville 5:30 p.m., for supper.

Leave Jacksonville—By the Savannah, Florida and Western railroad 8:30 p.m.

Arrive in New Orleans, "The City," April 26th,

where the day will be spent in visiting Tybee, Rosedale, Thunderbolt and other points of interest, leaving at 7:30 p.m. via Central railroad for Atlanta, arriving at 7 a.m. April 27th, where party will disband.

Officers of the Association.

Below are printed portraits of the officers of the association:

PRESIDENT A. P. WILDER.

The president of the association, Mr. A. P. Wilder, has been car accountant of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad for the past twenty years, and is a clear headed, solid and conservative member of the association. He is a man of magnificent physique and impressive bearing, easy and graceful in address and has made a splendid presiding officer, being well versed in parliamentary practice. His election last year, at Buffalo, to the presidency of the association, by acclamation, was a fine tribute to his popularity and standing as a member. Mr. Wilder represents one of the greatest railroad systems in the country and is a representative man in every respect. He will retire with the hearty approbation of the association.

Business of the Convention.

The association is one of the most important in the country. Its object is to secure uniformity of reports and actions in everything pertaining to the car service department.

The duty of a car accountant is to keep a record of the movements of the cars of his road.

The work has been greatly systematized through the efforts of the association. It is now about perfect. For instance, take an East Tennessee car loaded, say with plows for Manitoba, thousands of miles away in British Columbia. That car goes through and by a system of reports the car account of the East Tennessee will keep his eyes upon it. A report will be made to him giving the car's number, from one road to another, and so on, until at last notice will come that it has reached its destination. Then the car account of the East Tennessee will telegraph for its immediate return.

As soon as the car is unloaded it will be started back, and the car accountant will receive almost daily reports of its progress until it rolls into the East Tennessee yard.

SUBJECTS FOR DISCUSSION.

The following are the subjects which will be discussed by the convention:

(a) Report of committee on adopting a cipher code for reporting car movements and trading.

(b) Report of committee on individual mileage.

(c) Report of committee to wait on general manager of roads at next annual time convention, at New York.

(d) Report of committee on distribution of cars.

(e) Report of committee on per diem.

(f) Report of committee on the adoption of plan for making fast freight line cars.

(g) Report of committee to wait on general managers, relative to fast freight line mileage reports.

(h) Report of committee to solicit roads not in the association to become members.

(i) Report of committee on interchange of cars.

(j) Report of committee to give receipts for car rates changed, the signing of such receipts to constitute the certificates.

(k) Should switch cars be noted on interchange reports, and so reported on junction roads?

(l) Should the deliveries of cars in the passes of the Alabama and Chattanooga railroads now be the Alabama Great Southern, with headquarters in Birmingham, having his office in the first house ever built in that city? During these stirring times he served under no less than five different administrations within one year.

At the earnest solicitation of his family he gave up railroad life in 1873 and, taking a course in Eastman's business college, graduated with honors. He entered commercial life, and afterwards filled a number of important positions as an accountant. In 1881 his old longing for railroad life returned and he determined to go back to his early profession and in July of the same year sent recommendations or influence of any kind, being unknown to the officials of the road he obtained a position on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad as billing clerk at a small terminal station at a meager salary, and thus for the second time began at the bottom of the ladder. Again his success was rapid and phenomenal, receiving five promotions in less than a year. In April 1882, he was promoted from assistant train dispatcher to the position of car accountant and with one clerk took care of the car service department of the great East Tennessee system, and proceeded to make that department into its present large proportions.

Mr. Hoyle has ever been an earnest, zealous and hard working member of the Car Accountants' association, and has done a great deal of pioneer work for the association in the south. It was partly through his efforts that the convention had their meeting south this year. Mr. Hoyle has been chairman of nearly all the leading committees of the association in the years past, and at the last annual convention at Buffalo, was elected vice-president. Following the usual custom, it is expected that he will be elected president today.

TO MEET TODAY.

The convention of the car accountants will meet in the ballroom of the Kimball house at 10 o'clock this morning.

It will remain in session three days and will transact a considerable amount of business pertaining to car accounting.

This evening, Mr. Willis Reagan, of the Thurman Car Company, will give the visitors a reception at the Capital City Club.

Tonight evening Governor Gordon will give a reception in honor of the accountants and the ladies who have accompanied them to Atlanta. It will be a very brilliant affair.

Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Mrs. E. C. Spalding will give the visiting ladies a reception.

Thursday afternoon will be devoted to carriage drives to the various places of interest in and near the city. A visit will be paid to the spot where McPherson fell.

Friday morning a special train of devils will bear the visitors away on an excursion to Florida. That "pilgrimage to the land of flowers" is tendered by the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad through Mr. F. J. Hoyle, the car accountant of that road.

The excursion will go from here to Brunswick, and from there by boat to Fernandina, and for the subsequent proceedings upon the program may be consulted.

Arrive Saturday morning at the Florida railway station at 6 a.m. April 21st. In the afternoon a special excursion will be tendered by the Jacksonville and Atlantic railroad to the beautiful Lake Keowee, South Florida railway. Arrive at Tampa 5 p.m., where the night will be passed upon the Gulf of Mexico.

Leave Sunday morning by the South Florida railway, 2 p.m., via Kissimmee, Arrive at Sanford 2:30 p.m.

Leave Saturday evening the People's line of steamers 10 p.m. An afternoon excursion will be tendered by the St. John's river. Supper served on board. Arrive at Palatka 12 midnight, where pleasant dreams and quiet slumbers will be next night.

Leave Palatka—By the St. Augustine and Palatka railway, 10 a.m. April 25th.

Arrive at St. Augustine about 12 noon, for a walk of about two hours in this most ancient Spanish city, the oldest in America.

Leave St. Augustine—By the St. Augustine division of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railway at 4 p.m.

Arrive in Jacksonville 5:30 p.m., for supper.

Leave Jacksonville—By the Savannah, Florida and Western railroad 8:30 p.m.

Arrive in New Orleans, "The City," April 26th,

where the day will be spent in visiting Tybee, Rosedale, Thunderbolt and other points of interest, leaving at 7:30 p.m. via Central railroad for Atlanta, arriving at 7 a.m. April 27th, where party will disband.

Officers of the Association.

Below are printed portraits of the officers of the association:

THE TREASURER H. MORTON. The treasurer of the association is Mr. H. M. Morton, car accountant of the Illinois Central railroad. He was born in New York in 1853 and has spent nearly all his business life in the service of the Illinois Central, with which he became connected in 1882. Mr. Morton is an active, earnest member of the association and is one of the best car accountants of the whole country, and the able man in which he conducts the vast interests of the car service department of the great Illinois Central system is in itself an evidence of his ability. He is a model treasurer and the finances are carefully guarded and kept by him.

LEWIS JACKSONVILLE. By the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railway, at 12:30 p.m., April 23d, by rail and boat to the St. John's river. Arrive at Jacksonville on the beautiful Lake Keowee, South Florida railway. Arrive at Tampa 5 p.m., where the night will be passed upon the Gulf of Mexico.

Leave JACKSONVILLE—By the St. Augustine and Palatka railway, 10 a.m. April 25th.

Arrive at St. Augustine about 12 noon, for a walk of about two hours in this most ancient Spanish city, the oldest in America.

Leave St. Augustine—By the St. Augustine division of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railway at 4 p.m.

Arrive in Jacksonville 5:30 p.m., for supper.

Leave JACKSONVILLE—By the Savannah, Florida and Western railroad 8:30 p.m.

Arrive in New Orleans, "The City," April 26th,

where the day will be spent in visiting Tybee, Rosedale, Thunderbolt and other points of interest, leaving at 7:30 p.m. via Central railroad for Atlanta, arriving at 7 a.m. April 27th, where party will disband.

Officers of the Association.

Below are printed portraits of the officers of the association:

VICE PRESIDENT F. J. HOYLE. Vice-President Frank J. Hoyle is an Atlanta, having lived here until he became a citizen with the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railway in 1881. His relatives are residents of this city and he still calls this home. Mr. Hoyle began his railroad career at the early age of fifteen as telegraph operator for the Western and Atlantic railroad at the little town of Acworth, in 1871. His success was rapid, for within a year's time he was appointed chief operator of the Alabama and Chattanooga railroads now the Alabama Great Southern, with headquarters in Birmingham, having his office in the first house ever built in that city. During these stirring times he served under no less than five different administrations within one year.

At the earnest solicitation of his family he gave up railroad life in 1873 and, taking a course in Eastman's business college, graduated with honors. He entered commercial life, and afterwards filled a number of important positions as an accountant. In 1881 his old longing for railroad life returned and he determined to go back to his early profession and in July of the same year sent recommendations or influence of any kind, being unknown to the officials of the road he obtained a position on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad at a meager salary, and thus for the second time began at the bottom of the ladder. Again his success was rapid and phenomenal, receiving five promotions in less than a year. In April 1882, he was promoted from assistant train dispatcher to the position of car accountant and with one clerk took care of the car service department of the great East Tennessee system, and proceeded to make that department into its present large proportions.

Mr. Hoyle has ever been an earnest, zealous and hard working member of the Car Accountants' association, and has done a great deal of pioneer work for the association in the south. It was partly through his efforts that the convention had their meeting south this year. Mr. Hoyle has been chairman of nearly all the leading committees of the association in the years past, and at the last annual convention at Buffalo, was elected vice-president. Following the usual custom, it is expected that he will be elected president today.

THE LIST OF VISITORS. The following is as full a list of the visitors as could be secured last night:

C. W. Cushman, wife and son, Railway Car accountants; M. S. Robinson and son, Erie Dispatch, Indianapolis.

E. M. Horton, Illinois Central, Chicago.

J. H. Thompson, wife and son, B. H. T. & W., Mechanicville, N. Y.

C. F. Clement, M. C. & P., R. Peckham and wife, C. & O., Rock Island, and daughter, C. & Chicago.

J. A. Keesbury and wife, White Line, Buffalo.

A. C. Ady, wife and two ladies, C. H. V. & T., Columbus.

J. H. Hedden, F. T. & T., Terre Haute, Ind.

H. B. Terrell, Fall Brook Coal company, Corning, N. Y.

Clinton Brook and sister, M. O. & St. L., Minneapolis.

S. S. Schatz and wife, editor "Equipment Guide," Cleveland.

B. J. Hamm, C. B. & W., Allegheny, Pa.

G. S. Gatchell, B. N. Y. & P., Buffalo.

M. C. Trout, wife and daughter, Toledo and Ohio Central, Toledo.

E. G. Squier and wife, C. B. & O., Chicago.

C. F. Pierce, Little River Refrigerator company, Chicago.

W. L. Bass, L. N. O. & T., Louisville.

F. H. Webb, K. & L. & W., Louisville.

C. H. Parker and wife, C. N. O. & T. P., Meridian, Miss.

A. D. Bethard, R. & A., Richmond.

R. T. Trouessart, M. & F., Milwaukee.

W. N. Young, Arms Horse Car company, Toledo.

E. M. Underhill and wife, Southern Pacific railroad, New Orleans.

C. F. Pierce, Little River Refrigerator company, Chicago.

W. L. Bass, L. N. O. & T., Louisville.

F. H. Webb, K. & L. & W., Louisville.

C. H. Parker and wife, C. N. O. & T. P., Meridian, Miss.

A. D. Bethard, R. & A., Richmond.

R. T. Trouessart, M. & F., Milwaukee.

W. N. Young, Arms Horse Car company, Toledo.

E. M. Underhill and wife, Southern Pacific railroad, New Orleans.

C. F. Pierce, Little River Refrigerator company, Chicago.

W. L. Bass, L. N. O. & T., Louisville.

F. H. Webb, K. & L. & W., Louisville.

AIR-LINE

THE CONSTITUTION.

EVENTS FOR TODAY.

MEETINGS—
GEORGIA LODGE NO. 96, F. A. M., AT 7:30 P.M.
LADIES MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION, AT Y. M. C. A. PARLOR, AT 4 P.M.
DRIVING PARK ASSOCIATION, AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, AT 7:30 P.M.
ANNUAL MEETING, Y. M. C. A. AT 7 P.M.
CAR ACCOUNTANTS, AT KIMBALL HOUSE AT 10 A.M.

THROUGH THE CITY.

Parliamentary Paragraphs Caught on the Run by the Constitution Reporters.

A PLEASANT GATHERING.—The Falcon Club will hold a meeting tonight at the residence of Colonel B. F. Abbott, on Peachtree Street. A good programme has been arranged.

ANNUAL MEETING.—This evening at 7 o'clock the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian association will take place in the rooms of the association. A full attendance is desired, as important matters will be discussed.

FOR STEALING TWO RITUALS.—J. D. Allen, blind, stole two ritualts of the Gads City Lodge of Knights of Pythias and yesterday he was tried in the city court for that crime. The jury found a verdict of "guilty," and Judge Van Eps sentenced Allen to pay a fine of $50 & to go to jail for six months.

PROSECUTING A WILL.—Yesterday, in the court of probate, were filed proceedings for the probate of a will—the testament of Edwin N. Stanley, of Chicago, Ill. This is the first case of the kind in Georgia since the passage of a special law on the subject of probating foreign wills, enacted by the last Georgia legislature.

THE SUPERIOR COURT.—The superior court met yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, Judge Marshall J. Clarke presiding. In the case of Leander Kendrick against Henry C. Thurman for damages, the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $150. The case of Pavay against the city of Atlanta for damages was begun and will consume the larger part of the day.

THE LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—Will meet at the parlor of the Young Men's Library this afternoon (Tuesday) at four o'clock. All ladies in the city who are interested in preserving the memory of those who lost their lives in defense of their country will please meet with the association. If any desire to become members, an opportunity will be given at this meeting.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICE.—A special feature of the services at Marietta street Methodist Episcopal church, for the week, will be a series of sermons by Rev. W. B. Barnett, of Kentucky, on the doctrine of Sanctification, in the afternoons, beginning at 3 o'clock today, followed by consecration meeting. Let every one interested in this subject attend. The evening meetings, beginning at 7:30, will be devoted to the unconvinced. All are invited.

THE CUSTODY OF A BOY.—Young Forster was before Ordinary Calhoun yesterday with a writ of habeas corpus directed against Er Lasho, who, it was alleged, unlawfully held his custody a negro boy, sixteen years old. The respondent produced the boy and made no resistance to the petition. It transpired that the boy was unwilling to leave Lasho's employ to go to his father's ordinary. Calhoun granted the writ and placed the boy in the custody of his father, Young Forster.

BENCH WARRANTS.—United States Deputy Marshal Harbinson came to Atlanta yesterday having in his custody John L. Craven, who was arrested on a bench warrant in Lumpkin county. United States Deputy Marshal Grant brought in G. B. Irvin from White county, who was arrested on a bench warrant. Both prisoners were charged with violation of the revenue laws, and while awaiting trial forfeited their bonds. They were placed in Fulton county jail.

EVANGELIST TILLMAN SICK.—For two months the Rev. J. L. Tillman, of Edgefield, S. C., has been evangelistic work in Atlanta under his gospel tent. The strain upon him has been great and his labors have been so exacting that his strength has given way, and he will require a few days' rest. His place will be supplied for the next few days by the Rev. Dr. Christian, Mr. Morrison and Sam Jones. His sickness is not regarded as serious, and it is believed he will be ready for work before the end of the week.

A CAPER OF THE WIND.—Early yesterday morning a blast of wind caught the folds of Tillman's tabernacle in its grip and toyed with it like a plaything. The large center pole was broken in fragments, and the small supports were dashed about in all directions. The canvas was lifted like a kite and carried about forty yards away. Mr. Tillman's sons, who have been assisting him in his revival work, worked hard all day to restore the pavilion to its original condition and they succeeded before night.

THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.—The special investigating penitentiary committee, appointed by the last general assembly to sit during the recess met yesterday morning in the office of the adjutant and inspector general and organized for business. The following members of the committee were present: Messrs. Huff Scofield, Harrison, Terrell and Ham. The committee took an early adjournment and met again together in the afternoon. The committee will hold another session this morning when some important matters will come up for consideration.

THE FEDERAL COURT.—Pursuant to adjournment of the United States circuit and district courts, which met yesterday morning, Judge W. T. Nelson is presiding. An order was signed in the district court, all these cases deferred, so far as can be determined, till the next term. The district attorney entered a nolle prosequi in the case of Tom Carol of Gilmer county, and George Trout, of Pickens, who were charged with concealing and removing extraneous mail. No other business was had, so the court adjourned at noon to meet the morning at 10 o'clock.

A HAPPY WEDDING.—One of the happiest weddings solemnized for many months in Atlanta occurred here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Georgia Browder, one on Atlanta's favorites, was married to Mr. T. W. Wilkes, the popular soliciting agent of the Georgia railroad. The bride has hosts of women friends in this city, and the groom can number his friends by the hundreds. Only a small party of the more intimate friends of the two families were present. Many beautiful and costly gifts were presented.

ECLIPSE WIND MILL FOR SALE.

Ten foot wheel, 75 foot tower and 1,650 gallon tank; all in perfect order. Will sell cheap. M. B. Hall, 50 Peachtree street.

VELVETIA AT BRADFIELD & WARE'S.

Sam'l W. Goode & Co. SELLS at Auction

A splendid 16 room residence on West Hunter street, and 12 large vacant lots on W. Hunter and Jeptha streets, Wednesday, the 27th, at 3:30 p.m.

7 pm.

TAX OFFICES MOVED.

The tax receiver and tax collector have moved their offices (by order of the county commissioners) to No. 53 South Pryor street, opposite Redd & Cox's live stable. Persons having business with either of them should call at the above named places from this date.

JAMES M. WILSON,
COUNTY TAX COLLECTOR.

JAMES O. HARRIS,
COUNTY TAX RECEIVER.

NOTICE TO GOLD MINERS.

ALEXANDER CITY, Ala., April 15, 1887.

MESSRS. ALLEN & CO. have

RENT TRAINS.

EX-PRESS & MAIL.

NO. 1 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 2 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 3 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 4 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 5 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 6 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 7 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 8 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 9 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 10 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 11 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 12 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 13 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 14 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 15 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 16 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 17 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 18 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 19 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 20 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 21 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 22 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 23 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 24 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 25 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 26 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 27 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 28 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 29 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 30 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 31 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 32 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 33 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 34 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 35 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 36 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 37 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 38 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 39 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 40 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 41 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 42 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 43 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 44 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 45 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 46 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 47 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 48 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 49 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 50 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 51 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 52 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 53 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 54 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 55 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 56 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 57 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 58 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 59 WEST-DAILY.

7 pm.

NO. 60 WEST-DAILY.

</div

FOR SALE.

TWO LARGE IRON SAFES AND SEVERAL
handsome showcases and counters.
FREEMAN & CRANKSHAW, Jewelers,
top 1st col Sp 23 and 31 Whitehall street.

McBRIDE. McBRIEDE.

Haviland's China,
Carlsbad China, Fine Cut.
NEW, FASHIONABLE, CHEAP.

GLASS. SPOONS. FORKS. KNIVES.

Dry Air Refrigerators.

Cream Freezers.

GATE CITY STONE FILTERS.

BEST GOODS. LARGEST STOCK.

LOWEST PRICES.

◀ M c B R I D E ' S . ▶

Reduced Rates to Europe!

THE WHITE STAR LINE

Steamship Republic will sail as an extra steamer from New York on 5th of May, taking cabin passengers at $55. Same rate is charged intermediate passengers on other ships.

R. D. MANN & CO. Agents,

No 4 Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga.

fr. m. und McBr. 8p

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Daily Weather Bulletin.

OBSERVER'S OFFICE, SPECIAL SERVICE, U.S.A.]

U.S. CUSTOM HOUSE, APRIL 18, 1887—9 P.M.]

All observations taken at the same moment of actual time at each place.

Barometer: Thermometer: Wind:

Barometric: Thermometer: Wind Point:

Barometric: Thermometer: Wind Velocity:

Barometric: Thermometer: Wind Gust:

Barometric: Thermometer: Weather:

Augusta.....

Savannah.....

Jacksonville.....

Montgomery.....

Baltimore.....

New Orleans.....

Galveston.....

Pelham.....

Fort Smith.....

Chattanooga.....

Mobile.....

Baltimore.....

Charleston.....

Local Observations.

6 a. m. 29.52 69 63 SW

2 p. m. 29.54 75 46 SW

9 p. m. 29.79 56 42 NW

Maximum thermometer.....

Minimum thermometer.....

Total rainfall.....

W. EASBY SMITH,
Corporal, Signal Corps, U. S. Army.

Note.—Barometer reduced to sea level and standard gravity. The dash (—) indicates precipitation insiprecable.

MEETINGS.

A regular communication of Georgia
No. 95, F. A. M., will be held at Masonic Hall on Saturday evening, April 22,
Work E. degree, by order
PORTER KING, W. M.
M. ROSE, Secretary.

Stockholders' Meeting.

MARIETTA, Ga., April 14, 1887. Office of the Majets and North Georgia Railroad Company.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Majets and North Georgia Railroad Company, will be held at the company's office in Marietta, at 11:30 o'clock a.m., on Saturday, the 22d day of April, 1887. Stockholders in said road will be paid a dividend of one cent and four cents
free of charge by showing their stock certificates to conductors of the road.

H. M. HAMMETT, Secy.
M. N. G. R. R. Co.

$500 REWARD

WILL BE PAID FOR THE DELIVERY OF

B. F. WILCOX

To the Sheriff of Appling county, Georgia.

B. F. WILCOX is wanted for the murder of A. J.
Wilcox. He is about five feet, eight inches and weighs 200 pounds; has large knot prominently on back of head; red face and flat front teeth. $200 is offered by governor of state and $800 by friends in Appling county. MRS. E. J. WILCOX, Rifensburgh, Ga.

FOR SALE.

22 ELEGANT LEVEL VACANT LOTS, 22

AND ONE TWO STORY

Nice and Spacious Residence

Brilliant of Room and Comfort.

Thursday, April 28th at 3:30 O'clock p. m.

ON THE PREMISES

THIS SALE COMPRISES AN IMMENSE BLOCK

of high and commanding ground of great value

and has been sought after for years.

The lots front on Peachtree street, the Central and West Point railroads, exceedingly convenient to parties in the railroad departments. Just a block or so from the Kimball house and Whitehall street and the business center of the city, and the dust and noise of the same.

The subdivision has been made with great care, leaving alleys in the rear of every lot.

Churches, schools and markets are near this block.

The block we now offer is just in the center of every thing desirable in the way of elevation, health and convenience, and is absolutely the property of the city.

Call at No. 28 Peachtree st, for plots or information.

Terms 1/2 cash and balance 6 and 12 months 8 per cent.

H. L. WILSON.

Real Estate Dealer.

CITY TAX.

THE RECEIVERS' BOOKS ARE NOW OPEN FOR receiving your returns, and how people with whom you have done business. All can be sent on the last day. Only two months in which to make your returns. The books will be promptly closed the last day of May.

R. J. GRIFFIN,
T. J. MALONE,
M. T. CASTLEBERY,
City Tax Receivers.

aps t sp

Buying vs. Renting

HOUSES 8 TO 8 ROOMS, AND VACANT LOTS
from $100 to $1,000 on Grand, Peach, Foster,
Brown, Cain, Georgia and Central avenues, White
Hall, Forsyth and other streets, at reasonable terms.
A. F. Holt, agent Wm. A. Haygood, 172 Peachtree street, appt 101 Sp

H. L. WILSON.....AUCTIONEER

15 LOTS FOR SALE. 15

TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1887, AT 3 O'CLOCK P. M.

Butler, and Valentine, 310, lots are on one side of the street, and 312, 314, 316, 318, 320 on the same side, between Hillyard and Fort, 10 between Valentine and Butler, 75 ft. south of Cain

This property is close to business, convenient to both business and residential sections, and you can get a home that will enhance in value

while you live and leave a fine inheritance for your posterior. While these lots are of different value all of them are good, and one dollar need be expended for grading. The demand for just such real estate is increasing all the time.

Lots sold, for 2 years $300 a year, or two as 1/2 cash and 1/2 balance, and 12 months 5 per cent, or all cash, if preferred. H. L. WILSON, real estate agent, 29 Peachtree st.

ANOTHER CHANGE

IN THE MANNER OF MAKING
WHISKY SELLING CASES.

The General Council repeals the Garrett Ordinance and Substitutes Another—The White Committee is to be formed by Mr. Collier, Mr. H. C.
What Was Done During the Session.

The council chamber was full of citizens yesterday afternoon when Mayor Cooper called the general council to order. Every member of the body was present except Mr. Dorsey and Mr. Bentell.

The meeting was one with many interesting features.

While the body was working under the head of resolutions, Mr. Tanner arose, saying:

"May it please your Honor, I have an ordinance here which I desire read."

The gentleman passed a folded paper to the messenger and resumed his chair. The messenger handed the paper to Clerk Goldsmith, who proceeded to read it. The reading created quite a sensation before the clerk had gone half through it. It was:

"Right here I would like to say," said Mr.
Angier, "that we are 'in honor bound' to sustain the recent deal of the police commission in their wholesale 'slasher' of the innocents," and that is what the creation of a sinecure for Ryan means. We would create the office and they would fill it, and Ryan had to play the 'half boy' in this case—hold up while some one else got the job. I am sorry for the massacre of Moon, New Holland and others.

Mr. Angier and I would never have had this if we had approached the magistrate he used to have.

"I move that the majority of these prosecutions,
evidently sufficient to have been instituted
before the recorder's court of this city for violation of the provisions of the ordinance, be dismissed."

With the exception of these prosecutions,
evidently sufficient to have been instituted
before the recorder's court of this city for violation of the provisions of the ordinance, be dismissed."

JUDGE ANDERSON WISHED IT SO.

"I am very glad to see that ordinance introduced," said Mr. Angier. "It should be adopted, for the Garrett ordinance is unjust.

The wino men are treated as outlaws.

They are arrested without even reasonable probability of evidence sufficient to convict.

They are put to trouble and expense only to be discharged."

"I move to table that resolution or ordinance rather," said Mr. Bell.

"I should think," said Mr. Angier,

"that if we withdraw my motion to table off all discussion," said Major Cooper, interrupting
Mr. Angier.

"All right; I have said all I care to say," responded the gentleman.

"If Mr. Bell will withdraw his motion I would like to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

"Or will it if Judge Anderson can stand it
I care to say," said Mr. Collier, "that Judge
Anderson has read that ordinance and desires
its adoption."

</